Washington State Patrol's "Most Wanted" Arrest

Detectives from the Marysville Criminal Investigation Unit announced the arrest today of WSP Most Wanted suspect Emily J. Holloway by the U.S. Marshal's Service of Coeur d'Alene Idaho.

Holloway was being sought by the Washington State Patrol and the Pacific Northwest Fugitive Apprehension Task Force (PNWFAT) for Felony Vehicular Assault that occurred on April 11, 2003 on State Route 542 in Whatcom County. Holloway drove off the roadway and rolled her vehicle, seriously injuring her passenger. She had been drinking at the time of the collision. Holloway was arrested for Vehicular Assault but subsequently failed to appear for trial and a warrant was issued for her arrest.

Marysville WSP Detectives requested the assistance of the U.S. Marshals Service through a WSP Trooper Detective that is assigned to the Pacific Northwest Fugitive Apprehension Task Force. The Detective learned that Holloway moved to Oregon. He then contacted Deputy Marshals from Oregon who went to the listed residence and found that Holloway moved to Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. The District of Idaho U.S. Marshal's Service subsequently found Holloway walking to a class and took her into custody without incident at about 4:00 p.m. yesterday afternoon.

Holloway's arrest is another example of the professional dedication to the pursuit of justice by the men and women of the Washington State Patrol and the U.S. Marshal Service. The PNWFAT is a U.S. Marshal-sponsored partnership comprised of investigators from the King County Sheriff's Office, Seattle Police Department, Washington State Department of Corrections, Washington State Patrol and the U.S. Marshals Service.

Holloway is the 34th WSP Most Wanted Suspect arrested or located and brought to justice since the website was established in September of 2003.
